

Masotti Berger Cassella wins Legal Firm of the Year for Life Sciences M&A

The firm is the winner of Le Fonti Awards 2017

Milan, 3 July 2017 – “This Firm has proven to have exceptional expertise in the Life Sciences area, a field where MBC has outstanding technical skills which confirm its leading role in Italian M&A. The prize recognizes the competence of its team and its ability to come up with brilliant and successful solutions in the most complex transactions involving major Italian and international companies.”

These were the reasons given by the jury in announcing the winner of the Firm of the Year for Life Sciences M&A for 2017.

The team led by Luca Masotti has advised On many important transactions, such as, to name the most recent and significant, the acquisition of Italian group ECB by German group Saria, as well as advising ab medica holding and its group in quite a number of different transactions and cases.

“This prize, which adds to other important awards won by MBC in the last 12 months, is an acknowledgement of the firm’s increasingly strong presence in the life sciences market”, comments Luca Masotti. “It is one of our key sectors, where our legal and tax/accounting skills yield their best results in maximizing the professional and intellectual assets of Italian small-to-medium size companies in this strategic sector of the Italian business landscape.”
